

Who are the kids involved in the juvenile justice system according to the data?

Most kids involved have approximately 2 ½ diagnosed/diagnosable mental health and substance abuse challenges.

Kids who are experiencing significant trauma and violence exposure.

15% have experienced sexual abuse; over 50% have been exposed to domestic violence.

15-18% of BHJJ kids have experienced physical abuse.

40% have both mental health and substance use issues.

Kids who are experiencing significant trauma and violence exposure.